Speaker Spotlight

Aleece Fosnight, PA-C, CSC-S, CSE, NCMP, IF

A CME Conference is only as good as its speakers, and at Skin, Bones, Hearts & Private Parts, we hire the best. To us, that means they're up-to-date, they're thought leaders in their field, and they're engaging enough to keep attendees' attention over the course of their full-day of focused study. For women's health, we turn to Aleece Fosnight, PA-C, CSC-S, CSE, NCMP, IF, a physician assistant who specializes in sexual medicine, women's health, and urology. She is a certified sex counselor, sexuality educator, and sex counselor supervisor through the American Association of Sexuality Educators, Counselors, and Therapists, as well.

January is Cervical Cancer Awareness Month

Although cervical cancer is one of the most preventable and treatable types of cancer, it has a heavy impact on women, with 90% of cases and deaths occurring in low- and middle-income countries around the world. In 2020, in fact, about 604,000 women were diagnosed with cervical cancer, and 342,000 died from the disease. To encourage increased education cervical health and cervical cancer prevention – and take steps to help eliminate this preventable cancer – Cervical Cancer Awareness Month in January is an important opportunity to share evidence-based information, promote vaccination against human papillomavirus (HPV) and screening, and emphasize the World Health Organization (WHO) Global Cervical Cancer Elimination Initiative.

Starting the New Year with a Big Win!

Congratulations to Katy Fiano, APRN-BC, Marah Canfield, APRN-CNP, and Tiffany Blamble, PA-C, the three winners of our CME Ultimate Giveaway! After registering for a CME course in December 2023, all three medical professionals were automatically entered in this annual prize, with Katy taking the Grand Prize of a $4,000 all-expense paid trip to an In-person 2024 CME conference, Marah winning a $1,000 registration to a 2024 CME conference, and Tiffany winning a $700 On-demand CME Full Package.

We're so glad that by choosing us, we were able to show them our gratitude through the continuation of their professional development! Thank you to all who entered; we can't wait for our 2024 CME conference schedule to begin – there's so much to learn, so many adventures to take, and so many new friends to meet. Happy New Year!
